Pastor Bill Roberts Brief Bio

Pastor Bill Roberts has devoted more than 35 years to Gospel ministry, faithfully serving the church as a pastor, Bible teacher, mentor, and church leader. Throughout his ministry, he has been passionate about helping people deepen their relationship with Jesus Christ and equipping pastors and congregations for effective ministry. His preaching combines biblical depth with practical application, offering Christ-centred messages that inspire spiritual growth and faithful discipleship.

In 1998, Pastor Roberts joined Auburn Adventist Academy, where he taught Bible for three years, helping shape the spiritual lives of young people. He was then called to serve as senior pastor of the Auburn Adventist Academy Church, where he faithfully ministered for 14 years. His pastoral leadership was marked by a commitment to biblical preaching, discipleship, and nurturing healthy church communities.

Recognized for his heart for encouraging fellow ministers, Pastor Roberts later served as a field representative for the Ministerial Department before accepting the call in 2014 to become Ministerial Director for the Washington Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. In this role, he serves as a "pastor to pastors," mentoring clergy, strengthening church leadership, and supporting pastors and their families as they carry out the mission of the church. His ministry is guided by a deep conviction that Christian leadership is an act of humble service, reflecting Christ's example of servant leadership.

Pastor Roberts and his wife, Dorena, are the proud parents of two young adult children. Together, they share a lifelong commitment to ministry and to helping others experience the transforming grace and hope found in Jesus Christ.

May God bless you richly throughout this weekend and beyond.
