DISCIPLESHIP
REFLECTIONS

"And how shall they preach unless they are sent? As it is written: How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the gospel of peace, who bring glad tidings of good things! But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, 'Lord, who has believed our report?'

So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God."

(Romans 10:15-17, NKJV)

Disciples Know God's Word

How can you claim God's promises? As a disciple, you must know what God's Word says and believe it. If you don't know what God's Word promises, you can't claim His best for you. You can't claim what you don't know.

Spend time with God to get to know Him more. Diligently study and meditate on the Lord's Word to know His heart and perfect will for you.

You must believe so thoroughly that the Lord our God loves you and care so much about all your needs that, when you ask, you expect to receive.

Make a disciple's commitment today to spend time every day, without fail, learning what is in God's Word. Study it. Pray about it. Claim it yourself.

Spending time in God's Word is evidence of a commitment to the way of the Lord and will open new avenues of blessings in your life as His disciple.
